Introduction to SDG 5 Gender Equality:

Discrimination based on gender undermines the fundamental basis of our community and reduces the value of each individual. It is a massive waste of human potential that goes much beyond a simple violation of human rights. We deny half of the world's population the chance to enjoy life to the fullest when we deny women equal rights. All people living in our globe will benefit when women achieve political, economic, and social parity. Together, we can eradicate prejudice and work toward granting everyone the same rights and respect. Even though both men and women have equal rights under the Indian constitution, gender inequality still exists. Research indicates that gender prejudice is pervasive and primarily favors men in a number of contexts, most notably the workplace.

As stated in Sustainable Development Goal 5 (SDG 5), gender equality is a cornerstone idea and a key factor in the advancement of human rights, the economy, and society. Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune (DPU) is dedicated to creating a society in which people of all genders are afforded equal rights and opportunities in all spheres of life. The United Nations' definition of gender equality is a core component of our educational purpose and is strongly aligned with our principles of empowerment, inclusivity, and diversity.

Relevance of gender equality in the context of the institution

Gender equality is fundamental to the mission of any healthcare institution, as it strives to provide equitable healthcare services. In the context of healthcare, gender equality not only addresses the disparities in access to services but also enhances health outcomes for all individuals. Healthcare institutions like DPU play a crucial role in promoting gender-sensitive practices, ensuring that both men and women receive appropriate care tailored to their specific needs. This includes recognizing and addressing the unique health challenges faced by women, such as reproductive health issues and gender-based violence, which often remain underrepresented in traditional healthcare frameworks.

Moreover, fostering gender equality within the healthcare workforce promotes diverse perspectives and leadership, leading to better decision-making and improved service delivery. By empowering female healthcare professionals and ensuring equal representation in leadership roles, DPU can enhance its ability to respond effectively to the health needs of diverse populations. Incorporating gender equality into DPU's healthcare policies and practices not only aligns with global commitments such as the Sustainable Development Goals but also contributes to the overall well-being of communities. By prioritizing gender equality, DPU can ensure that all individuals receive comprehensive, inclusive, and effective healthcare, ultimately fostering a healthier society.

Institutional Policies and committees for Gender related issues & Support

As we navigate through the contours of this Sustainable Development Goal (SDG -5), we embark on a journey that seeks to break down barriers, eliminate discrimination, and empower all irrespective of their gender, to thrive in a world where opportunities and justice know no bounds. DPU ensures healthy gender equality in the institution which is evident through policies that are implemented and revised as and when required.

The objectives of this policy are to guarantee equal opportunities for women in higher education, remove obstacles, address gender disparities, and address the unique needs of women in various circumstances.

- Non-Discrimination Policy for Gender, Transgender, Disability and on the basis of Caste, Creed, Religion and Language: This policy reinforces the commitment of DPU to creating an inclusive and respectful environment and to promote equality and non-discrimination in every aspect of our academic and administrative activities in accordance with the guidelines provided by the Government of India. <https://sdg.dpu.edu.in/2023/5/5.6.1-Non-Discrimination-Policy.pdf>
- Maternity and parental leave is in place in the Human Resource Policy during their work period. The objective of the this leave Policy is to provide female employees with sufficient leave for maternity, ensuring physical and emotional well-being during and after pregnancy, and extend similar support to male employees through paternity leave, enabling them to assist their partner and bond with their newborn. Protect the job security of employees on maternity and paternity leave and offer financial stability through continued salary disbursement. Ensure clarity and uniformity in the process of applying for and sanctioning both maternity and paternity leave across all departments and employee categories. Align the institution's policies with legal frameworks governing maternity and paternity rights in India to maintain compliance with the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961, and relevant provisions related to paternity leave. <https://sdg.dpu.edu.in/2023/5/5.6.3-Maternity-and-Paternity-Policy.pdf>

- Internal Committee Policy for Prevention of Sexual Harassment (Posh) of Women at Workplace is constituted as per the guidelines of UGC to address issues related to sexual harassment of women. The objective of this policy is to create a safe, respectful, and inclusive workplace and academic environment for women. The policy aims to prevent acts of sexual harassment, protect women from harassment through a fair grievance mechanism, promote gender equity by addressing issues of sexual harassment in a timely and sensitive manner. <https://sdg.dpu.edu.in/2023/5/5.6.8-Prevention-of-Sexual-Haressment-POSH-Policy.pdf>
